NoECCN out of bed audit](#)

Data collection took place on Wednesday 2nd August/Sunday 6th
August. 11 units submitted data from 235 patients.

28% of patients were out of bed by 12pm. 6% of patients refused to get out of bed. 65% of patients met exclusion criteria.

This has been discussed at our network QI meeting with some units looking at interventions such as patient and staff education to support patients rehab.

Collaborative Regional Benchmarking Group

The CRBG met on 02/10/23 . Feedback from the new tool is positive “easy to use “ “patient focused” Upcoming benchmarking topics:

October -tracheostomy
November - pressure ulcer
December- Eye/mouth care
January- delirium

Each unit will receive an individualised poster to display their benchmarking results.

Next CRBG is 15th January via TEAMS

NoECCN Review of Unit Education Provision

All NoECCN educators have been visited in practice by our new network educator/QI nurse, this resulted in a review of education provision across NoECCN.

If you would like a copy of the report please email rachel.wade@northumbria-healthcare.nhs.uk

LaCI

At our recent meeting the fabulous Kate Tantum joined us, there were some excellent examples of rehab discussed from her and our unit LaCI leads

Update from James Cook Critical Care Unit

Professional Nurse Advocates

The fabulous PNAs at James Cook held a coffee morning on 19th September, sharing their successful implementation of the role.

Update from West Cumberland Critical Care Unit

Organ Donation

Sharon Uhrig ICU/organ donation nurse has been busy educating staff on the importance of organ donation via ward based education sessions and study days.

Follow up clinics have been introduced. The clinic runs every 3 months by ACCP/physio/LACI AP. Attendance is 100% and patients are finding it a real help.

ACCPs Mark Cannan and Kirsten Geer have consulted and wrote chapters in the newly published Fundamentals of Critical Care

Congratulations to HCA Louise McCredie and HCA Rose Franklin for receiving the Chief Nursing Officer award for support workers

Update from North Tees Critical Care Unit

The fantastic team at North Tees have created a brilliant rehab advent calendar! View the fun festive video watch it here.
